NATIVITY SCHOOL SCHOLARS—Receiving scholarship grants from three of the city's Catholic organizations are Anton Sommer (left), a one-year scholarship to Our Lady Queen of Angels Seminary in San Fernando, given by the Nativity Mothers Club; Thomas Reamer, a one-year scholarship to Bishop Montgomery High School, given by the Holy Name Society; and Marilyn Nincevic and Colleen O'Hara, one-half year scholarships to Bishop Montgomery, awarded by Court of St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America. Mrs. Richard Ban of Catholic Daughters congratulates the winners. Press Photo

Menorah Club Installs Panel

Installation of new officers and board members of the Men's Club of Temple Menorah took place June 18 at the Thunderbird International Hotel.

The ceremonies were conducted by Rabbi Henri Front, spiritual leader of Temple Menorah.

Fred Spangler of Torrance was installed as president. Other officers installed were David Morrison, vice president; Irving Chaiken, treasurer; and William Brodsky, secretary.

Board members will include Dr. Matthew Ellenhorn, Seymour Uberman, Mark Bennett, Ben Wallace, Morrison Grossman, Ezra Wellens, Hyman Friedman, Paul Mandel, William Sloan, Eser Bluestein and George Lewison.

The installation was followed by a dinner dance.

Club Will Discuss Future Programs

The Mothers' Club of Boy Scout Troop 315 will meet July 28 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ted Whisnand, 2212 Arlington Ave., to plan future activities of the group.

At a recent meeting in the home of Mrs. D. C. Reyes, members discussed the results of the club's spring picnic.

Attending were Meses. Don Bose, W. E. Croner, E. H. Foster, Lee Polick, George Richardson, Norman Rickard, Lester Roach, Herbert Shattuck, and V. B. Simpson.

Maddens Home After Trip East

Mrs. Ralph Madden, 2018 W. 180th St., and her son Kenneth, 5, returned home yesterday following a month-long flying trip to Salt Lake City, Denver, McAdoo, Pa., and Atlantic City.

Mr. Madden accompanied his family on the first leg of the trip and returned to Torrance June 19.
